

Todd Wolynn, MD – Bio.

Dr. Todd Wolynn is a Pediatrician, CEO, and co-owner of Kids Plus Pediatrics — a cutting edge, independent practice in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

He led clinical vaccine research at Kids Plus for 14 years, including 40+ studies as both a sub-investigator and a principal investigator.

He is co-founder of Shots Heard Round the World, a nonprofit dedicated to empowering vaccine advocates, and Senior Advisor to The Public Good Projects (PGP) on Vaccine Advocacy.

Dr. Wolynn is proud to speak nationally and internationally as a recognized child health advocate. His areas of expertise include pediatric sleep medicine, breastfeeding medicine, health equity, immunizations, vaccine communication, and reimagining primary care.